Departures

1. We will do Liturgy on Tuesday morning due to the pre-Lenten cycle which precludes a Liturgy on this Wednesday. Friday is problematic due to arranging rides so Tuesday works best.
2. I am unsure as to which department to invite so I simply put in the next ones. I am open to whatever is suggested
3. I do not have many agenda items so I copied some previous ones. Please let me know who is presenting which item and if there are specific items you would like noted.
4. We do need an agenda for the Standing Synod on Monday.

TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 20, 2016

Following an all-day retreat for the Metropolitan Council conducted by Protodeacon Peter Danilchick and Charles Ajalat on Monday September 19, 2016, His Beatitude, Metropolitan Tikhon celebrated a prayer service at 9:00 AM on Tuesday morning to open the meeting at the Immaculate Conception Seminary.

A. Agenda: Introduction (attached)

The meeting was then called to order. Frs. John Jillions and Eric Tosi indicated minor clarifications to the agenda as to presenters of reports and requested its approval.

A.1. MOTION KUCHTA/ZAVEDNAK – To approve the agenda for this meeting as presented. CARRIED.

B. Roll Call/Approval of Minutes of Previous Meeting (attached)

Fr. Tosi then conducted the roll call and announced guests who would be present at various points during this meeting (see participants list). He requested approval of Alexis Liberovsky as recording secretary for the meeting, which was accepted without objection. He presented the draft minutes of the previous meeting of the Metropolitan Council on February 16-18, 2016 for approval.

B.1. MOTION FR. J. VITKO/KUCHTA – To accept the previous meeting minutes of February 16-18, 2016 as presented. CARRIED.

C. Welcome

Metropolitan Tikhon welcomed everyone present for the meeting, including the members of the Standing Synod in attendance and noted the absence of Bishop Paul due to illness. He also extended a particular welcome to the new members of the Council. He then expressed gratitude to Archpriests John Vitko and John Schimchick, whose terms on the Metropolitan Council are ending with this meeting.

D. Metropolitan's Report

Metropolitan Tikhon presented an oral report. He noted the fruitful discussions on leadership at the previous day's retreat led by Protodeacon Peter Danilchick and Charles Ajalat. He emphasized that prayer, humility and discernment are required to exercise leadership. He noted the importance of improving communication and dialogue. The presence of the Standing Synod at Metropolitan Council meetings improves communication.

He then presented the core of his report, reflecting the four pillars of the Guiding framework in reverse order. Regarding External Relations (Pillar IV), he highlighted, as an introduction, the final paragraphs of Holy Synod's response to the Episcopal Assembly on canonical regional planning in March 2015. He then reported on his trips abroad, particularly concelebration with the Ecumenical Patriarch, as well as other significant activities. During this section of the Metropolitan's report on External Relations, a broad and extensive discussion on means of communication took place, resulting in the following resolution. It was indicated that the issue in question is already being addressed.

D.1. MOTION K. VITKO/ MIKHALEVSKY – That important documents that the Metropolitan would like to share with the whole Church be disseminated by email to bishops and priests for further dissemination to their flocks. CARRIED with 5 opposed (Jury, Kuchta, Lucas, Svetlovsky, Watt).

Concerning Evangelism and Outreach (Pillar III), His Beatitude noted the success of the OCA Mission School as well the outreach provided by the OCA website. As examples of Stewardship (Pillar II) for the Church, he expressed appreciation for the work of the Stewards of the OCA (SOCA), the Chancery staff, the Archives Advisory Committee and the Metropolitan Council. Regarding Spiritual Life (Pillar I), he indicated his conviction that this pillar must be the foundation for all the other pillars. He pointed to the ascetic labors of Saint Herman and reported on the work of the Synaxis of Monastic Superiors, the Department of Pastoral Life, ORSMA, SMPAC as well as theological education, which was the subject of the Holy Synod's retreat in June.

E. Major Goals for Upcoming Year

Metropolitan Tikhon initiated discussion on the process of implementing and promoting all the discussions at this meeting. In response to questions, he stated that a major goal for the upcoming year would be to reevaluate the work of OCA departments and to prioritize their activities. He also underscored the importance of monasticism in enhancing the spiritual and liturgical life of the Church and advocated for greater connections between parishes and monasteries. Discussion ensued on various related issues.

Following a recess for lunch at 12:30 PM, the afternoon session was called to order at 1:35 PM.

F. Pension Board Report (attached)

Maureen Ahearn, OCA Pension Plan Administrator, presented the attached report from the Pension Board and the attached introduction of amendments to the Pension Plan proposed by the Board titled: “Provide for deemed retirement for Members upon reaching age 75” and “Excuse Member Contributions for Members Who Are Eligible for Retirement and Have Reached Age 80”.

F.1. MOTION MIKHALEVSKY/GRABAN – To approve the following amendments to The Orthodox Church in America Pension Plan

Plan Section 1.28 is restated as follows:

1.28 "Retirement" The termination of employment of a Member on his Normal, Deferred or Disability Retirement Date. A Member who has not earlier retired shall be treated as having terminated employment on the first day of the month coincident with or immediately following his seventy-fifth (75th) birthday for the purpose of enabling commencement of a benefit while otherwise remaining Employed (including remaining Employed and having Compensation for purposes of being obligated to contribute to the Plan with respect to such Employment). The Pension received by a Member shall not be treated as Compensation for purposes of determining contributions due to the Plan or for determining benefit accruals.

Plan Section 5.5 is added as follows:

5.5 If a Participant first becomes eligible to receive additional benefits after attaining Normal Retirement Age, whether as a result of performing additional service or because of a benefit increase through the Plan, the actuarial increase applicable to those additional benefits will be calculated from the date the additional benefits would first have been paid rather than the date on which the Participant attained Normal Retirement Age.

Plan Section 3.2(c) is added as follows:

3.2(c) A Member who is receiving a Pension benefit and continues as an Employee shall not be required to contribute to the Plan as of the first day of the month coincident with or following his reaching age 80. Nonetheless, the Employer Contribution shall continue with respect to any Compensation paid to such Member. CARRIED.

Questions and discussion ensued. Per the request of the Metropolitan Council last year, the Pension Board is continuing to explore drafting of a policy for retired priests serving older parishes, similar to the Mission Parish Priest Retirement Benefits Policy adopted a year ago.

G. Chancellor's Report

Fr. John Jillions highlighted his attached written report with appendices. He particularly noted the need for long-term planning in order to actualize a vision for the Church's ministry as expressed in the four pillars put forth by Metropolitan Tikhon. Regarding the Department of Pastoral Life, he stated that a major project is to undertake revision of the Guidelines for Clergy issued over twenty years ago. Questions and discussion ensued on various issues.

G.1. ORSMA

Cindy Heise highlighted the confidential report from the Office of Review of Sexual Misconduct Allegations (ORSMA), which included case statistics and coordinator activities. She noted the success of the ORSMA/SMPAC workshop conducted with OCA hierarchs during the Holy Synod retreat this year. She also indicated that parish compliance with the OCA Policies, Standards, and Procedures (PSPs) on Sexual Misconduct continues to improve with the submittal of annual compliance forms and the execution of background checks as required. Questions and discussion ensued.

G.2. SMPAC

Fr. Jillions presented the confidential report from the Sexual Misconduct Policy Advisory Committee (SMPAC). He highlighted SMPAC activities, while noting that SMPAC is an oversight policy-making body responsible to the Holy Synod, while ORSMA deals with actual misconduct cases and implements policies created by SMPAC. Questions and discussion ensued.

Following a short recess at 3:22 PM, the session resumed at 3:42 PM.

H. Secretary's report (attached)

Fr. Eric Tosi summarized his attached written report with attachments, including a proposal to redesign the OCA website. He presented the recommendations for Mission Planting Grants in 2017 from Fr. John Parker, Chairman of the Department of Evangelization, for which funding is to be approved as part of the proposed OCA budget for the coming year. Questions and discussion ensued, particularly regarding insurance issues.

H.1. Archives Advisory Committee (attached)

Alexis Liberovsky, Committee Secretary and OCA Archivist, summarized the attached written report, noting that the environmental assessment of the OCA Archives for which the Council had allocated funding had been completed and indicated the availability of the lengthy assessment report for those who may wish to read it. In response to a question, he reiterated that the Committee continues to deal with the immediate needs of the OCA Archives in their current location as well as long term planning for relocation to a proper facility.

Fr. Tosi then highlighted the attached Preliminary Report for the 19th All-American Council with the attached PowerPoint presentation. He indicated that based on the success of the youth program and joint convocation with the FOCA convention, these features would be retained for the 19th Council. He then outlined the process of site selection for the 19th Council and presented the following proposals for decision to the Metropolitan Council.

H.2 MOTION HATFIELD/JURY – To approve the St. Louis Union Station Hotel in St. Louis, MO as the venue for the 19th All-American Council. CARRIED.

H.3. MOTION MIKHALEVSKY/K, VITKO – To approve the recommendation concerning Preconciliar Committee membership as presented and to submit these names for appointment to the Holy Synod. CARRIED.

R. Open Discussion

Metropolitan Tikhon initiated discussion on planning and structure, continuing the deliberations in conjunction with his earlier report. He advocated prayer as the underlying context for this work. A lengthy dialogue took place on the process of communicating and implementing the vision of the four pillars of the Guiding Framework

The day's sessions were adjourned at 5:28 PM.

THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 22, 2016

The morning session was opened with prayer at 9:14 AM.

S. Guiding Framework

Metropolitan Tikhon continued to lead discussion on the process of communicating and implementing the Guiding Framework and its four pillars. Maureen Jury was asked to introduce a discussion of the four pillars in breakout groups. Each of the four groups would spend 15 minutes discussing each pillar and writing down priorities. She then read the four pillars and corresponding goals, as outlined on pages 6-7 of the Chancellor's report. The breakout discussions ensued for over an hour.

Following a short recess at 10:46 AM, the session resumed at 11:00 AM.

Maureen Jury then asked everyone to vote for the top priority in each pillar resulting from the discussion groups. After the voting, she announced the results, indicating the top priorities voted under each pillar.

PILLAR ONE: THE SPIRITUAL LIFE: Peer groups (clergy and lay); Training on developing a spiritual life; Catechism of the Good Shepherd in an Orthodox Context.

PILLAR TWO: STEWARDSHIP: Build understanding of stewardship/moving from fundraising to stewardship/fundraising for outreach; Stewards of the Orthodox Church in America (SOCA).

PILLAR THREE: EVANGELISM AND OUTREACH: Tell “Joe Parishioner” how to evangelize; Re-evangelize former Orthodox (“Nones” vs. those who rejected Orthodoxy, superficial ideas of our faith); Better use of social media.

PILLAR FOUR: EXTERNAL RELATIONS: • Plan for the 50th Anniversary of the OCA! (2020); Encourage IOCC, OCMC, OCF, OCPM, Syndesmos, FOCUS; Every parish attend events in other Orthodox jurisdictions.

A further discussion ensued on process and implementation, particularly on how implementation might differ in diverse settings throughout the Church.

Possible themes for the 19th All-American Council emanating from the Pillars of the Guiding Framework were discussed. It was suggested that all four pillar topics could be used as the theme.

W. Adjournment

In concluding remarks, Metropolitan Tikhon indicated the Metropolitan Council discussions on the Guiding Framework would be shared with the Holy Synod at its upcoming meeting for the further input and action by the hierarchs. He thanked the Council members for a productive meeting.

W.1. MOTION DRESKO/JURY – To adjourn the meeting. CARRIED.

The meeting was adjourned with prayer at 12:03 PM.

Respectfully submitted,

Alexis Liberovsky,
Recording Secretary

Report for the 19th All-American Council

Archpriest Eric G. Tosi

1. Introduction

The 19th All-American Council will be held in from July 23 to 27, 2018 at the St. Louis Union Station Hotel located on Market Street in St. Louis, MO. The contract for the hotel has been signed and the planning process is proceeding. We have formed the Preconciliar Commission which has met and the Local Committee which has also met. The operational and logistical planning is now underway.

2. Preconciliar Commission

The PCC met in December to begin the process of planning the next AAC. His Grace Bishop Paul of Chicago and the Diocese of the Midwest is chairing the committee which consists of the officers of the Church, the Local Committee chairs, a member of the Metropolitan Council, and representatives for the FOCA and Youth programs. The PCC will meet quarterly as the planning for the AAC evolves.

3. Theme

The PCC has looked at a number of themes for the AAC and based on the guidance of His Beatitude Metropolitan Tikhon, it has recommended that the 19th AAC be based around the “4 Pillars” which was first highlighted by His Beatitude at the 18th AAC. These “4 Pillars” are: Spiritual Life, Stewardship, Evangelism and Outreach, and External Relations. Each of these have subcategories which will be further explored over the next year by the dioceses.

The PCC looked at various themes to integrate the guidance from the Holy Synod with the operation of the AAC. His Beatitude put forth and the PCC recommends that the overall theme of the 19th AAC be “For the Life of the World”. This theme not only encompasses the spirit of the Pillars but also honors the ever-memorable Protopresbyter Alexander Schmemmann whose seminal book first was published close to 55 years ago and addresses these very issues. The 19th AAC will integrate this into the planning and operations of the Council. Contact and approval from the Schmemmann family has been accomplished.

4. Recommendations by the PCC

Among the highlighted recommendations of the PCC, with the guidance of the Holy Synod are:

- a. The Council will build upon the good work from the last AAC in Atlanta.
- b. There will be electronic registration as was in Atlanta.

- c. Fees for the AAC will be directly assessed to the Diocese in keeping with the new finance model of the OCA. Each diocese will determine how or if they will collect such fees from their parishes. The OCA will not collect fees directly from any parish. The fees to the diocese will be determined by the percentage that each provides to the overall OCA budget. Melanie Ringa will present a more detailed explanation.
- d. Retired clergy and widowed clergy wives will not be assessed to attend the AAC.
- e. Individual assessments will remain the same as in Atlanta and will apply to certain registrants such as military chaplains, observers and others as determined by the PCC.
- f. There will be a FOCA annual convention the weekend before the AAC.
- g. The Youth component will also be held during the Council.
- h. Dioceses will once again present short 10 minute films about the life in their respective diocese.
- i. There will be a formal dinner on Thursday evening with an invited major speaker.
- j. There will be exhibits and vendors. Each diocese and department of the OCA will be expected to have a display.
- k. There will be clergy portraits for the OCA website during the Council.
- l. Dioceses can hold their annual assembly on the Monday of the Council.
- m. There will be early morning Liturgies by the monasteries during the Council, Akathists in the morning and Vespers in the evening. Confession and other prayer opportunities will be provided.
- n. There will be Hierarchical Liturgy at the hotel on the Sunday before the Council and the Thursday of the Council.
- o. Electronic voting is being explored.
- p. There will be a coordinated communication plan which will include local TV and newspapers, website daily press releases and video, and a live simulcast of the proceedings.
- q. An AAC website will be go active one year before the Council and all documents, news, registration and information will be posted there.
- r. Registration for the Council and the hotel will open the first week of January, 2018.
- s. There will be a clergy wives breakfast and a youth breakfast with the Holy Synod.
- t. There will be a SOCA reception and a joint seminary reception.
- u. We will utilize seminarian volunteers for the Council.
- v. We will utilize a professional parliamentarian for the Council.
- w. We are looking for recommendations for the Clergy and Lay Chair of the AAC.
- x. All money collected from the services will be donated on behalf of the OCA to a local charity. We are looking for suggestions.

5. Local Committee

The Local Committee will be chaired Fr. Timothy Sawchak and Robert Butchko. They have begun the process of formulating the local committees. All the committees have chairpersons in place and they have been briefed on their responsibilities. Some of the committees will begin work in the very near future such as the exhibits committee. Others will not begin work until closer to the Council itself. The next planned visit to the local committee will be in late spring. The committees are:

However, there is a major proposal attached which would affect Plenary Session 3 and 5 (Tuesday and Wednesday afternoon respectively). Read the attached proposal and we ask that the Metropolitan Council recommend it for approval and implementation by the Holy Synod at their spring 2017 meeting.

9. Logistics

Dn Peter Ilchuk has been working on the logistical aspects of the Council. We will be reviewing and recommending contracts for AV/staging, exhibit space, security (important as the exhibit space is an open floor plan), photographer, transportation needs, food and beverage needs, and other related needs. Extensive contact and cooperation has been made with the St. Louis Convention Visitors Bureau. They will be providing a number of items including reduced pricing for food and events, items for the gift bags, and electronic interfacing with the AAC website. We will be working on the transportation of items for the Council which will include the iconostasis and other liturgical items, operational supplies and material, and bookstores from the seminaries. Youth events and transportation are still being developed. We do have a number of sponsors for items such as the bags and workbooks which will cover their costs. We will also have historical items from the Metropolitan Museum at St. Tikhon's Seminary present at the Council. We are expecting the Our Lady of Sitka icon and the St. Anne icon to be present.

10. FOCA and Youth

The FOCA and Youth programs are still being developed under the able leadership of Becky Tesar and Fr. Benjamin Tucci. The FOCA program will begin on Saturday and finish on Monday morning. FOCA will also have a number of events including a dinner and dance on Sunday evening. They are also sponsoring the Council Souvenir book as they did in Atlanta. Other events include a golf outing, Baba's Auction and other events.

The Youth Program is developing and we expect to build on the success of the Atlanta Council. There will be the full vetting of volunteers and a training session prior to the Council. There will be a number of events which will include instruction and outings to various local sites. The Youth will once again be presented to the Council where they will do a presentation. There is a possibility of a major donor to assist in the underwriting of the Youth Program in order to have no cost to the participants. Fr. Benjamin is working with hierarchs and parish priests to begin gathering names and encouraging the youth to attend (and to begin raising funds to cover their costs). There are a number of sites around St. Louis which we can get reduced group rates from the CVB. There is also a plan to interact with the community with a Day of Service for the youth in the local community.

Notes for Possible AAC Sessions

1. The 19th All American Council is scheduled for July 23-27, 2018 in St. Louis. It is going to be one of the first held in some time when we do not have a major issue that needs to be passed (i.e. Statute, financing, etc.) As such, it presents an opportunity for the Church to engage in forward thinking and strategic planning.
2. There has been discussion in recent years about how to reformat the AAC to reflect diocesan realities as well as to increase participation by dioceses rather than parishes. While the structure of the AAC is parish centered (parishes send representatives as opposed to dioceses sending representatives), there is an opportunity to shift this for the upcoming council.
3. The expected theme of the Council will be based off of Metropolitan Tikhon's "Four Pillars" which has received the support of the Holy Synod and the Metropolitan Council. In addition, the "Four Pillars" was briefly introduced in the Metropolitan's address at the Formal Dinner at the 18th AAC. If the Council is organized around the “Four Pillars” then there is a way to bring these two elements together at the next Council.

4. There are two sessions from the last Council which were dedicated to workshops. These were held on Tuesday and Wednesday afternoon (plenary session 3 and 5 respectively). If we removed the workshops from the agenda, we could replace them with diocesan initiatives based off of the “Four Pillars”.
5. The plan would be to release the “Four Pillar” document at least one year from the AAC. Then each diocese would be able to discuss in detail and present initiatives for consideration by the entire AAC at these two sessions. Two Pillars would be on Tuesday and two on Wednesday.
6. The Holy Synod would receive the initiatives from each diocese by the Spring 2018 Holy Synod meeting and whittle them down to three or four for consideration.
7. A diocese can submit any number of initiatives from on any, part or all of the “Four Pillars”. They would have discussed the “Pillars” beforehand at diocesan meetings and work together as a diocese to submit any number of initiatives as approved by the diocesan hierarchy.
8. These would allow for diocesan concerns to be brought forth to the Synod and the Church as a whole while allowing for free-form discussion on a diocesan level. As such the work would be done prior to the Council and the Council would simply vote on which initiative is of the most concern for the Church as a whole. We would utilize electronic voting on those two days which would give the Council immediate feedback.
9. There would need to be guidelines for the initiatives. These would be:
 - A. They would need to be in the area of the “Four Pillars”
 - B. They would need to be in the competence of the AAC
 - C. They would need to be something that can be applied Church-wide
 - D. They would need to be impactful
 - E. There would need to be a detailed implementation plan
 - F. There would need to be detailed associated costs outlined
 - G. They would need to be sustainable for at least the time between AACs
 - H. They would need a matrix of measuring success/effectiveness in implementation
 - I. They would have an oversight and management plan in place
 - J. They would be reviewed periodically for both implementation and results.
10. Those selected plans would be sent out beforehand to the delegates as part of the AAC packet for review prior to the Council. Representatives of diocese whose plans are selected for presentation will present them at the assigned plenary session. It would be a short 5 minute presentation for each initiative with questions as well as the ability to speak for or against each initiative. At the end of each “Pillar” presentation, an electronic vote would be taken and the one with the highest votes will be the presented to the Synod for their blessing. In the end there would be four initiatives for implementation over the next triennium.
11. The Metropolitan Council (as responsible for the AAC between Councils and the budget of the Church) would ensure they are placed in the budget and implemented. If an initiative falls into the competency of a particular department or office, they would be responsible for implementation. If not then some mechanism for responsibility would need to be in place. It would also provide guidance to these parties in directing their work for the upcoming triennium.

12. These could be reviewed and re-implemented (or dropped) at the 20th AAC.

As a note, here are the Four Pillars and associated points. As can be seen, this is a large area to cover but in reality it can be quite directed. A diocese may have a particular interest in one or a few areas that directly impact the diocese and parishes. On the other hand, it could clearly impact the whole Church and direction of the Church. But the initiatives should be focused and impactful. See Point 9 for the criteria. In addition, some may be deemed not within the competence of the AAC but worthy of discussion as a Church. This would be determined by the diocesan hierarch in the beginning and the Synod as a whole prior to the Council.

Diocesan Structure

It will be recommended that the AAC be more based on a Diocesan structure rather than as a large diocesan assembly.

This will be accomplished in two ways:

1. No parish will be assessed directly from the OCA. The diocese will be assessed based on percentage of the income they provide to the OCA and then the diocese assesses their parishes (or not) as they deem proper.
2. Two sessions will be dedicated to diocesan initiatives on the "4 Pillars" to be taken up and voted by the AAC as a whole.

Diocesan Initiatives

1. Based off of the "4 Pillars" which are Spiritual Life, Stewardship, Evangelism and Outreach, External Relations
2. Plenary Sessions 3 and 5 (Tuesday and Wednesday afternoon) will be dedicated to this topic
3. The final "4 Pillar" document would be released to the Church 1 year before the AAC (after Spring 2017 Synod meeting in March)
4. Each diocese will have a year to meet, discuss and submit any number of initiatives from any or all of the "4 Pillars".
5. These would be taken up and sorted through by the Holy Synod at the Spring 2018 meeting with 3 to 4 of them being submitted to the AAC for consideration
6. Two Pillars and associated initiatives would be presented by the diocese who recommended them at the plenary session for a general discussion and vote on them
7. We would use electronic voting and the one with the most votes will be integrated into the next triennium
8. They will be reviewed at the 20th AAC in 2021

Guidelines for the Initiatives

- A. They would need to be in the area of the "Four Pillars"
- B. They would need to be in the competence of the AAC
- C. They would need to be something that can be applied Church-wide
- D. They would need to be impactful
- E. There would need to be a detailed implementation plan
- F. There would need to be detailed associated costs outlined
- G. They would need to be sustainable for at least the time between AACs
- H. They would need a matrix of measuring success/effectiveness in implementation
- I. They would have an oversight and management plan in place
- J. They would be reviewed periodically for both implementation and results.

DCE Presentation

DOCTRINE AND SCRIPTURE

These words from the Law of Moses are quoted by Christ as the first and greatest commandment (Mk 12.29). They follow upon the listing of the Ten Commandments which begin, “I am the Lord your God . . . you shall have no other gods besides me” (Deut 5.6–7).

The one Lord and God of Israel revealed to man the mystery of his name.

And Moses said “. . . if they ask me, ‘What is his name?’ what shall I say to them?”

God said to Moses, “I AM WHO I AM.” And he said, “Say to the people of Israel, ‘I AM has sent me to you.’”

God also said to Moses, “Say to the people of Israel, ‘Yahweh, the God of your fathers, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, the God of Jacob has sent me to you: this is my name forever, and thus I am to be remembered throughout all generations’” (Ex 3.13–15).

God’s name is Yahweh which means I AM WHO I AM; or I AM WHAT I AM; or I AM WILL BE WHAT I WILL BE; or simply I AM. He is the true and living God, the only God. He is faithful and true to his people. He reveals to them His divine and holy Word. He gives to them his divine and holy Spirit. He is called Adonai: the Lord; and his holy name of Yahweh is never mentioned by the people because of its awesome sacredness. Only the high priest, and only once a year, and only in the holy of holies of the Jerusalem Temple dared to utter the divine name of Yahweh. On all other occasions Yahweh is addressed as the Almighty Lord, as the Most High God, as the Lord God of Hosts.

SAINTS AND THE ANIMALS THAT SERVED THEM

An Activity Book for Orthodox Children and Parents
Department of Christian Education • Orthodox Church in America

The Department of Christian Education of the Orthodox Church in America is excited to announce the fourth in an on-line series of DCE Activity Books: Saints and the Animals that Served Them. Many Saints are known for having befriended God's creatures, and the stories of their interactions with various animals have always been beloved parts of sacred Tradition, a testimony to God's presence in creation, and man's reception of creation as gift.

This most recent DCE creation is styled similarly to its predecessors: Saints of North America, Saints in Times of Trouble, and Saints Commemorated in the Litiya Prayers. Each installment contains concise, informative, easy to read histories of the Saints; detailed maps of their lives and travels; respective Troparia and Kontakia; entertaining word games and puzzles; helpful resources for further information; as well as beautiful and original iconographic line drawings of the Saints which may be used as handouts, enlarged for classroom use and bulletin boards, or given to children, as well as adults, to color.

St. Kevin

Venerable Father, Wonder-worker of Ireland

In 498, in the Irish province of Leinster, a baby boy was born to noble Christian parents. The baby was baptized Kevin, or Coemgen in the Irish language. The name means "he of blessed birth." This child was the first person in history to be called Kevin.

As a young boy Kevin had a bad temper and was not liked by the other children. In fact, they stayed away from him so they would not be hit by the stones he threw at them. He called other children terrible names.

But birds and animals loved Kevin and he loved them. The creatures trusted him, knowing that he would take care of them and never harm them. They came when he called them, and stayed near him for hours at a time.

It was a custom during the years of Kevin's childhood for parents to send their children to monasteries where they could learn reading, writing, and their Christian faith. So when Kevin was seven years old his parents sent him to Saint Petroe in Cornwall Monastery. But Kevin continued to have trouble getting along with others, and the monks had little success in getting the boy to be a better companion. Finally, one Great Lent, they decided that he should spend the forty-day period alone with God.

On the first day of Lent, as Kevin was kneeling and praying with his arms outstretched, a blackbird landed on his hand and began to build a nest. Kevin remained motionless and very quiet, not wanting to frighten the bird. He continued like this for the entire Lent, praying constantly. The blackbird fed him with nuts and berries. As Lent ended, the last baby bird in the nest flew away and Kevin returned to the monastery for Pascha. His prayers had shown him that he must be kind to people as well as animals.

Kevin was ordained to the priesthood and spent seven years as a hermit. One day a farmer named Dima, who lived near Kevin's cave, followed one of his cows when it went out to pasture. He did this because this cow gave far more milk than any of his others, and he hoped to find out why.

The farmer made an amazing discovery. He watched as the cow went to Kevin's cave, where the hermit monk was praying, and began gently licking his clothing and feet. The farmer was so struck by what he saw, especially when he found out that his cow had been doing this every day, that he asked Kevin to teach him about Jesus Christ. Then Dima begged the monk to come to his home to teach all of his family about Christ and the Gospel, and show them how to pray. Soon, other families heard about Kevin's teaching and also wanted to learn about Christ.

Kevin planned to build a monastery where monks could teach everyone – the young, the old, the rich, the poor, Christians, and pagans. However, King O'Tool of Glendalough would not permit it. King O'Tool was a pagan and did not believe in Christ.

The king had a pet goose of which he was very fond. The goose was old and weak. When the king heard of Kevin's miracles, he asked him to make the goose young again. Kevin agreed, and requested a very specific payment: he wanted to be given the land in the Valley of Glendalough over which the goose liked to fly. He did restore the goose's energy and youth, and was given the large piece of land.

The farmers of the area were glad to help Kevin, and worked very hard over many hours and many days to help build the monastery in the Valley of Glendalough. Sometimes they could look up and see the goose flying overhead.

Commemoration Date

Kevin encouraged everyone to come and learn about Christ. He became the abbot of the monastery he'd built.

Saint Kevin was a great worker of miracles, and many of them involved the birds and animals he loved. He taught in the monastery until his peaceful death in 618, at the age of 120. We celebrate Saint Kevin's memory on June 3.

Troparion (Tone 8)

Thou wast privileged to live in the age of saints, O Father Kevin,
Being baptized by one saint, taught by another, and buried by a third.
Pray to God that he will raise up saints in our day
To help, support, and guide us in the way of salvation.

Kontakion (Tone 8)

Forsaking thy noble inheritance, and shunning all the crooked ways of this sin-loving world,
Thou didst apply thine obedient feet to the straight and narrow path of Christ,
Eagerly hastening throughout thy life toward the heavenly Zion,
Where with all the saints and the bodiless hosts thou criest aloud in ecstasy:
Let every breath praise the Lord!

Saint Tikhon the Confessor

Patriarch of Moscow, Enlightener of North America

- 2 After completing his studies, he taught at seminaries in Pskov and Kholm. 3 He was consecrated Bishop of Lublin, Auxiliary of the Kholm Diocese, in 1897.

1 The infant Vasily Ivanovich Belavin was born and baptized in Toropetz, Pskov region, Russia in 1865.

5 Bishop Tikhon made a number of pastoral journeys, visiting his flock in the remotest corners of Alaska.

7 In 1905, he established and blessed St. Tikhon's Monastery in South Canaan, PA.

9 In 1917, he was elected Patriarch of Moscow – a position that had been abolished some 200 years earlier.

11 Under communist persecution – and house arrest in Moscow's Donskoy Monastery – Patriarch Tikhon guided the Church through a perilous period.

4 In 1898, Bishop Tikhon was appointed Bishop of the Aleutian Islands and Alaska.

6 In 1905, he moved his See to New York, where he supervised construction of St. Nicholas Cathedral.

8 In 1907, he presided at the First All-American Sobor in Mayfield, PA.

10 As Patriarch of Moscow, he presided at the All-Russian Church Council of 1917-1918.

14 Saint Tikhon is uniquely remembered by Orthodox Christians in North America as well as Russia for his selfless ministry on behalf of the People of God.

12 The difficulties of Church life under communism took a toll on the health of Patriarch Tikhon, who fell asleep in the Lord on April 7, 1925. He was buried in the Donskoy Monastery.

13 In 1989, the Council of Bishops of the Russian Orthodox Church glorified Patriarch Tikhon as a saint and confessor of the faith. His body, hidden for decades, was discovered and reinterred in 1992.

Saint Tikhon the Confessor

Patriarch of Moscow, Enlightener of North America

Vasily Ivanovich Belavin – the future Saint Tikhon – was born on January 19, 1865 in the Toropetz region of Pskov, Russia. Baptized in the church that his father served as a priest [1], Vasily showed a profound love for the Church and a gentle nature since childhood.

After completing studies at the Pskov Seminary, the tall, fair-haired young man graduated from the Saint Petersburg Theological Academy, where he was affectionately called “bishop” by his classmates, in 1888. He taught at the Pskov Seminary, and then in 1891 took monastic vows with the given name Tikhon, in honor of Saint Tikhon of Zadonsk. Soon after, he was reassigned to teach at the Kholm Seminary and raised to the rank of archimandrite. He later was appointed Rector of the seminary [2]. In 1897 he was consecrated Bishop of Lublin, ministering amongst Lithuanians and Poles as well as Russians and winning everyone’s affection [3].

The following year brought significant changes to Bishop Tikhon’s life. Having been appointed Bishop of the Aleutian Islands and Alaska, he travelled to America and took up residence at Holy Trinity Cathedral in San Francisco [4]. He worked hard to promote Orthodoxy, and made pastoral journeys to the remotest parts of Alaska [5].

Recognizing the need for more effective outreach to immigrants, Bishop Tikhon had the diocesan See moved to New York City. Later he oversaw the construction of Saint Nicholas Cathedral there [6]. In 1905, following his elevation to the rank of Archbishop, he established and blessed Saint Tikhon’s Monastery in Pennsylvania [7]. In 1907, just before he returned to Russia, Archbishop Tikhon presided at the first All-American Sobor in Mayfield, Pennsylvania. This gathering set the precedent of conciliar Church government in America [8].

Archbishop Tikhon spent the next ten years in Yaroslavl, Russia and Vilnius, Lithuania, serving with love and offering generous help to those left destitute by World War I. In 1917, having been raised to the rank of Metropolitan, he was elected Patriarch of Moscow and All Russia – the first in 200 years [9]. He knew the position would be filled with suffering, but he accepted it with obedience and out of his desire to serve Our Lord, regardless of the circumstances.

As Patriarch, Saint Tikhon presided at the All-Russian Church Council of 1917-18 [10]. This gathering was unprecedented in its legislation of many needed reforms in Church life. But the Patriarch’s task was exceedingly difficult, dealing with internal schisms, disorganization, and little administrative help. It was during the Council that the Russian Revolution took place.

Saint Tikhon courageously guided the Church through severe persecution by the Communist regime, which was devoted to the eradication of all religious expression and faith, and was placed under house arrest in Moscow’s Donskoy Monastery [11]. Though he was always kind and approachable, he refused, in his own words, to “make concessions which could lead to the loss of the purity and strength of Orthodoxy.”

The daily strain of external and internal problems, threats and persecution undermined Patriarch Tikhon’s health. He died on April 7, 1925, and was buried in the small Cathedral of the Donskoy Monastery [12]. Nearly one million people paid their respects to their beloved shepherd, who had exhorted his clergy to devote all of their energy “to preaching the word of God and the truth of Christ, especially today, when unbelief and atheism are audaciously attacking the Church of Christ. May the God of peace and love be with all of you!”

In 1989, Patriarch Tikhon was glorified by the Council of Bishops of the Russian Orthodox Church [13]. On April 7, 1990, representatives of the Orthodox Church in America joined Patriarch Pimen and the faithful of the Russian Orthodox Church in celebrating his feastday for the first time in the Donskoy Monastery [14].

Saint Tikhon remains an inspiration to the faithful of North America as well as Russia and a constant reminder that, despite the trials and tribulations the Church faces in the world, “the gates of hell shall not prevail.”

Holy Father Tikhon, pray to God for us! ■

A Grown Man Grows

Characters: Narrator, Peter, John, Beggar, 1st Bystander, 2nd Bystander

(Beggar is sitting on the floor. As Narrator speaks, Peter and John are walking toward the Beautiful Gate of the Temple.)

Narrator: One day the apostles Peter and John were on their way to the Temple to worship. It was three o'clock in the afternoon, the hour of prayer. A man who had been unable to walk since birth used to be carried each day to the "Beautiful Gate" of the Temple to beg.

Beggar: Wait, gentlemen! I beg you, give me some money. I am poor and I cannot walk or work for pay. (Peter and John look at the beggar with loving concern.)

Peter: Look at us! (The beggar looks at them with his hand out, expecting money.)

Peter: I have no silver or gold, but what I have, I give you. In the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, walk! (Peter and John raise the beggar to his feet.)

Beggar: I can walk! Praise God! Look—I can walk or dance or do anything! Thanks to the Lord! (He hugs both Peter and John. Then he walks around and does a few dance steps, and remains standing and smiling near Peter and John.)

1st Bystander: Look what's happened! That beggar who always sat by the gate is walking!

2nd Bystander: How did it happen? Is it a miracle?

1st Bystander: Peter and John, over there, had something to do with it. But how could they have done it? (They look at Peter and John.)

Peter: Men of Israel, why do you stare at us as if we made this man walk by our own power or godliness? The God of our fathers sent His Son Jesus Christ. Though you killed Him, God raised Him from the dead. We are witnesses to that. (John nods.) By faith in the name of Jesus Christ this man was made strong and healthy. Now is the time for you to repent of your sin. Jesus Christ has come for you and all of us. He fulfills the promise made to your forefather Abraham long ago.

Narrator: Some of the Jewish leaders did not want John and Peter to go on preaching about Jesus Christ. The two men were put in prison overnight. But many who heard their message that day became believers. The number was about 5000.

Giving It All Up When You Have It All

This weekly bulletin insert complements the curriculum published by the Department of Christian Education of the Orthodox Church in America. This and many other Christian Education resources are available at <http://dce.oca.org>.

On June 27 the Church celebrates the memory of a man who, from birth, truly "had it all." He is Saint Sampson the Hospitable. In some accounts he is also given the title of Physician.

He was born in Rome in the 5th century to a wealthy, prominent family. The study of medicine particularly interested him, and his privileged position enabled him to pursue it fully, while also receiving an excellent and well-rounded education.

Sampson belongs to a group of saints known as "Unmercenaries." These saints cared for those who needed medicine or healing without asking for payment. When Sampson completed his medical studies, he willingly served as a physician to anyone who needed him. Along with medicine and physical care, he gave comfort and spiritual guidance, urging everyone he met to trust and serve Jesus Christ.

His loving care wasn't limited to those who were considered, in the stratified Roman society, to be his equals. When his parents died he freed all the slaves he had inherited as part of a vast fortune. His inherited money went to help the poor, and he made plans to live simply in the wilderness.

But he came to understand that he could serve God better living among people, so he moved to Constantinople. He took a small house and offered its shelter to homeless people, while continuing to serve as a physician and caring friend.

The Patriarch of Constantinople heard about Sampson's work, and called him to priestly ordination. More people got to know who he was after he was ordained, but his quiet ministry of healing didn't change at all.

When Emperor Justinian became gravely ill and his doctors could find no cure, Sampson was sent for. His fervent prayer healed the emperor, who was so relieved and grateful that he wanted to bestow lavish gifts on the man who had cured him.

But Sampson had already had the kinds of things the emperor wanted to give him. He respectfully reminded the monarch of this, and said, "I left those things behind for the sake of Christ, so that I might find heavenly and eternal wealth." Perhaps only a person who has given up great riches is able to understand so well how little they mean in comparison to God's gifts.

Sampson did receive a reward from the emperor. He requested that Justinian build a hospital to serve the people of Constantinople. His request was fulfilled, and the hospital became the largest free clinic in the empire.

One commentator remarked on the uniquely Christian character of the hospital:

"It should be noted that such institutions were unknown to the pagans. They built grandiose edifices, temples to their gods, palaces, theaters, circuses whose ruins amaze us even today by their enormous size. They spent huge amounts on luxury and pleasure, but nowhere do we see that they tried to ease the lot of the sick and the suffering." (From "Selected Lives of Saints", compiled by A.N. Bakhmeteva, Moscow 1872.)

Troparion - Tone 8

Through your patience, your unceasing prayer, your love for the poor and the help you gave to them,
you became worthy of your reward, O holy Sampson.
Intercede with Christ God that He may save our souls

Six Things Every Orthodox Woman Should Know

So that nobody should take the term “man” (anthropos) to mean only the male, Scripture adds “male and female He made them.” Woman, like man, possesses that which is created in God’s image. Equal in honor in their natures, equal their virtues, equal their reward and alike their condemnation. (St. Basil the Great)

1. It isn’t all about Eve
2. The Church Fathers are our friends
3. Asking questions is a good thing
4. Women can teach men
5. We can meet extraordinary women in the Bible and in our Calendar of Saints
6. We have opportunities and advocates

With a vision for Total Parish Education, The Orthodox Education Commission provides resources and a community to meet the educational needs of all Orthodox Christians.

COMPASSION IN ACTION:

PARISH MINISTRY TRAINING

COMPASSION IN ACTION: PARISH MINISTRY TRAINING

Compassion in Action is a ministry of personal presence ~ of empathy, compassion and listening provided by the faithful to someone who is suffering mentally, emotionally, physically and/or spiritually.

Faithful are trained and supervised to visit and provide Orthodox Christian care to hurting brothers and sisters in the parish, or to neighbors in the community.

COMPASSION IN ACTION (CiA)

To clarify, this ministry of caregiving does not focus on “doing things” for the sufferer (e.g., cleaning the house, helping him/her get into the shower) but, rather, focuses upon the care receiver’s need for an Orthodox person’s presence as the center and sole reason for the visit.
