

Theotokion at "Lord, I Call"

Venerable Nicetas - April 3

Kievan Chant

arr. from B. Ledkovsky

Tone 2

Soprano
Alto

Tenor
Bass

You a - lone — con - tained with - in your womb the Detailed description: This system shows the first line of the chant. It features two vocal staves: Soprano/Alto (treble clef) and Tenor/Bass (bass clef). The key signature has one sharp (F#). The lyrics are: "You a - lone — con - tained with - in your womb the". The music consists of a series of chords and single notes, with a melisma on the word "alone".

uncontainable God without con - fin - ing Him, when He, in His Detailed description: This system shows the second line of the chant. The lyrics are: "uncontainable God without con - fin - ing Him, when He, in His". The musical notation continues with similar chordal and melodic patterns.

good-ness, be - came a man. There-fore, I en - treat you, O

Detailed description: This system shows the third line of the chant. The lyrics are: "good-ness, be - came a man. There-fore, I en - treat you, O". The musical notation continues with similar chordal and melodic patterns.

Vir - - gin: "Transform the passions that con - fine — me, Detailed description: This system shows the fourth line of the chant. The lyrics are: "Vir - - gin: "Transform the passions that con - fine — me,". The musical notation continues with similar chordal and melodic patterns.

so that, hav - ing walked on the straight and nar - row path, //

I may at - tain to that which leads to — Life.