Disciples whom You had especially cho - sen, and went up, O Mas - ter, on - to Mount Ta - bor wishing to show them Your glo - ry.

When they saw You transfigured, shining more bright - ly than the sun, they fell on their faces, struck with a - maze - ment at Your might, and they cried a - loud: "O Christ, You are the timeless Light and the Brightness of the Fa - - - ther, // even, though, of Your own will,

You are manifested in the flesh with - out change."

Sticheron 2

Soprano
Alto
Tenor
Bass

You, Who from all eternity are God the Word, and cover Yourself with light as with a garment, were transfigured before

Your Disciples, and shone more brightly than the sun.

Moses and Elijah stood by Your side, making it plain that You are the Lord both of the dead and of the living. They glorified Your ineffable dispensation, Your mercy and Your great con - de - scen - sion, // by which You have saved the world ut - ter - ly lost in sin.

Sticheron 3

Soprano
Alto

O Lord, Who were born from the Virgin cloud and made flesh, and were transfigured on Mount Ta - bor, sur-round - ing Your - self with a bright cloud, the voice of the Father in the presence of the Dis - ci - ples plainly declared You to be the be - lov - ed Son, one in Essence and sharing the same throne. Therefore Peter spoke in amazement, not knowing what he said:// "It is good for us to be here, O Benefactor, rich in mer - cy!"
