Orthodox Inter-Seminary Movement [OISM]

Stephen Vernak, President
PO Box 130
South Canaan, PA 18459

Email svernak@hotmail.com

OISM's mission is to create a closer fellowship among students enrolled in Orthodox Christian schools of theological education, affirming the common traditions and gaining an appreciation of other cultures and traditions. OISM hopes to promote understanding and unity among all Orthodox Christians and build a network for future clerical and lay cooperation.

Initially organized in the 1960s to foster closer relationships between students of canonical Orthodox seminaries in the US and Canada, OISM was recently revived. Seminaries active in OISM include Christ the Savior Seminary, Johnstown, PA; Holy Cross Seminary, Brookline, MA; St. Herman Seminary, Kodiak, AK; St. Tikhon's Seminary, South Canaan, PA; St. Vladimir's Seminary, Crestwood, NY; and St. Andrew Seminary, Winnipeg, MB.

Each member schools is provided the opportunity to elect two members to serve on the executive board, and associate member schools are granted one member to serve on the executive board. Membership is open to all SCOBA jurisdiction seminaries, and associate membership is granted by vote of the general assembly. OISM meets twice annually - once during the fall semester and once during the spring semester, on a rotating basis at membership seminaries. Elections are held during the spring semester meeting.

In 1994 the OCA Holy Synod recognized the FOCA as an official arm of the Church. In 1998, delegates to FOCA's National Convention adopted the organization's new name, the Fellowship of Orthodox Christians in America, in place of its previous title, the Federated Russian Orthodox Clubs.

FOCA is active on the national, district, and local chapter levels. The senior division embraces members 18 years of age and older, while the junior level serves youth ages 10 through 18. Metropolitan Herman is the FOCA's Spiritual Leader.

FOCA is dedicated to building fellowship among Orthodox Christians through service and mission and has contributed to the Church's charitable, missionary, and educational work. The United Fund provides grants to OCA seminaries and assistance to missions. The junior program offers numerous youth programs and ministries. The FOCA also publishes The Orthodox Christian Journal.

Published by the faculty of St Vladimir's Orthodox Theological Seminary, as a theological journal devoted to all doctrinal, spiritual or historical fields of research related to the Orthodox Church. Its aim is to promote Orthodox thought and witness in the world today. Regular contributors include members of the seminary faculty as well as other leading Orthodox theologians and scholars in fields related to Orthodox theology.

Train up a child in the way he should go; and when he is old, he will not depart from it.

- Proverbs 22:6

Resources are available from The Orthodox Church in America's Department of Christian Education and Department of Youth, Young Adult, and Campus Ministry covering a wide array of topics.
