O Fa-ther Pa - ta - pius, thou didst quench the fires of fleshly passion with ab - sti - nence. Like Elijah of old thou didst live in the de - sert; thou didst
pu - rify thy mind with in - ces - sant prayer to God.

[Pray now ...]

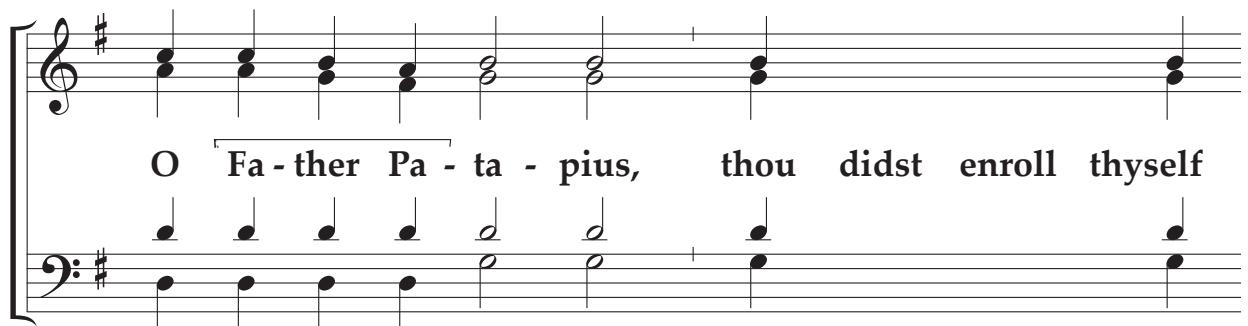

Pray now that He may grant our souls //

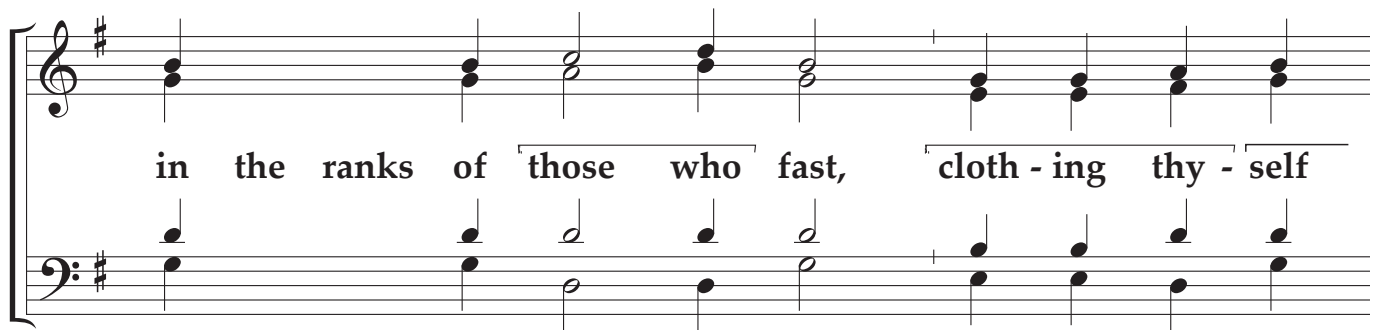

peace and great mer - cy!

Sticheron 2

O Fa - ther Pa - ta - pius, thou didst enroll thyself

in the ranks of those who fast, cloth - ing thy - self with dis - pas - sion. Now thou dost live in the [mansions of the ven'erable ones, ...]

mansions of the ven - 'ra - ble ones, where the light does not fade, and the Tree of Life stands.

Pray now that peace and great mer - cy //

may be grant - ed to our souls!

Sticheron 3

O Fa - ther Pa - ta - pius, thou didst shine forth as a

[beacon from Egypt, ...]

bea-con from E - gypt, en-light-ening the world with the brightness of thy mir - a - cles. — Thou didst dispel the gloom of soul-destroying in - fir - - - mi - ties,

driv - ing off the dark - ness of de - mons.

Pray now that peace and great mer - cy //

may be grant - ed to our souls!

The musical score consists of two staves. The upper staff is in treble clef with a key signature of one sharp (F#) and a common time signature. The lower staff is in bass clef with the same key signature and time signature. The vocal line is written on the upper staff with lyrics underneath. The piano accompaniment is written on the lower staff. The lyrics are: "may be grant - ed to our souls!". The word "grant" is hyphenated as "grant - ed".
