

KATHISMA HYMN*AFTER THE 1st READING FROM THE PSALTER

Tone One: “[The soldiers guarding] Your tomb, O Savior...”

Bulgarian Chant

Chant Melody

$\text{♩} = 66$

The_ hon - ored choir_ of_ the wise_ a - pos -

Ison

- tles was_ won-drous-ly_ as - sem - bled_ to bur - y

with_ glo - ry your im - mac - u - late bod - y, O_ all praised_ The - o - to - kos. With them the mul - ti - tudes_ of an - gels raised_ their song as they

* Sometimes referred to as Sedalen or Sessional Hymn. Some sources place this Kathisma Hymn after the 2nd Reading from the Psalter.

[reverently...]

rev'-rent - ly praised your trans - la - tion,

which we cel - e - brate with faith.

(Sung only when the Kathisma Hymn above is to be sung again.)

Glo-ry to the Fa - ther, and to the Son, and to the Ho-ly Spir -

-it, now and ev - er and un - to ag - es of ag-es. A-men.