death of his saints is pre-cious in the sight of the Lord, and He has glorified his faithful ser-vant. De-light-ing in his he-ro-ic and self-less deeds, // let us im-i-tate him in faith and love!

vs. The righteous cried, and the Lord heard them and delivered them out of all their troubles.

From the mouths of babes has the Lord brought forth praise, for by his re-fus-al to re-nounce his faith, Pe-ter the Aleut glorified God by his suf - fer - ing. Because of his young age and hum - ble or - i - gins his tor - men - tors were confident they could van - quish him. But the simple faith of a young child is e-nough to move moun - tains, // and to - day the Aleutians rejoice, remembering their mar - tyred cham - - - pion.

vs. Many are the afflictions of the righteous, but the Lord delivers them out of them all.

In one glo - rious final moment of self - sac - ri - fice, the ho - ly martyrs gave their lives for their de - vo - tion to Christ.

But we are summoned to offer our lives in re-mem-brance of them, as a continuous gift to God our Sav - ior. Bring-ing forth fruits worthy of re-pent - ance, our duty is to imitate Christ in acts of for - give - ness and love, that by humble deeds of generosity we too may testify to our faith in the Lord // and be ac-counted worthy to enter the joy prepared for those who love Him.
