You showed yourself to be the namesake of vic - to - ry,

O most honored martyr Ni - ce - tas. Proclaiming Christ our God through-out your — strug - gle, you confessed Him before kings and tor - men - tors. Therefore, never cease to pray to Him,

[Who loves mankind.]

Who loves — man-kind, that He will de - liv - er from all wrath and dis-tress // those who faithfully keep your mem - o - ry.

vs. Now, and ever, and unto ages of ages. Amen

Tone 8 (for the Afterfeast)

The voice of Your prophet Mo - ses, O God, has been ful - filled, for he said: "You will see your Life hang - ing be - fore your eyes." Today the Cross is lifted up, and the [world is set free ...]

world is set free from er - ror. Today the Church of Christ's Resurrection celebrates its dedi - ca - tion, and the ends of the earth rejoice like Da - vid with cym - bals, offering You a hymn and say - ing: "You have worked salvation in the midst of the earth, — O God — Your Cross and Res - ur - rec - [(Res-ur-rec-) tion, through which . . .]

tion, through which You have set us free, as You are good and love man-kind." // O Almighty Lord, glo-ry to You!
