His Beatitude, Metropolitan Tikhon celebrated a prayer service at 9:00 AM to open the meeting at the East Norwich Inn.

A. Agenda: Introduction

His Beatitude called the meeting to order and welcomed all participants. Fr. John Jillions delivered introductory remarks stressing the new beginning in the life of our Church since the election of Metropolitan Tikhon.
Fr. Eric Tosi presented a change to the agenda, adding a report today on External Affairs by Fr. Leonid Kishkovsky.

A.1. MOTION GALLICK/VITKO – To accept the addition of the External Affairs report into the agenda for this meeting. CARRIED.

Fr. Tosi further noted that the reports of the Department of Continuing Education by Fr. Ian Pac-Urar and the Department of Youth, Young Adult, and Campus Ministry by Andrew Boyd were added into the latest distributed draft of the agenda for this meeting.

A.2. MOTION MIKHALEVSKY/LANIER – To approve the agenda for this meeting as amended. CARRIED.

B. Roll Call/Approval of Minutes of Previous Meeting (attached)

Fr. Tosi asked for approval for the OCA Archivist, Alexis Liberovsky, to serve as recording secretary for this meeting. There being no objections, Alexis Liberovsky was approved as recording secretary.

Fr. Tosi then conducted the roll call and introduced guests present for this meeting (see participants list). He asked for prayers for Sam D’Fantis who is absent from this meeting due to his recent serious surgery. He then introduced a proposal that Gregory Nescott be appointed as legal consultant to the Metropolitan Council with the right to be in attendance at its meetings.

B.1. MOTION KUCHTA/MCFATTER – To appoint Gregory Nescott as consultant to the Legal Committee of the Metropolitan Council with the right to attend its meetings. CARRIED.

Fr. Tosi presented the draft minutes of the previous meeting of the Metropolitan Council on September 25-27, 2012 for approval.

B.2. MOTION GALLICK/LOWELL - To amend the second sentence under item L.1. on page 9 of the minutes of September 25-27, 2012 as follows: “He perceived a crisis regarding crisis management…” CARRIED.

B.3. MOTION DICK/ZAVEDNAK – To accept the minutes of September 25-27, 2012 as amended. CARRIED with one abstention (Mikhalevsky – as she was not yet an MC member during that meeting).

Fr. Tosi asked members of the Council to introduce themselves to the gathering.

C. Welcome

Metropolitan Tikhon welcomed everyone to the meeting and introduced Frs. David Lowell and Chad Hatfield to lead a discussion towards the more efficient conduct of Metropolitan Council meetings.

D. Introduction on Meeting Format

Frs. Lowell and Hatfield introduced discussions conducted within the Council Development Committee and Internal Governance Committee suggesting that the bulk of Metropolitan Council’s work should be done in committees, which would then bring proposals to Metropolitan Council meetings for action. This would facilitate a more efficient structuring of time and resources and would facilitate the Council’s focus not only on due diligence but also the Church’s mission and evangelism. It was also suggested that more interaction should be accomplished through conference calls and that the Council should have more interface with OCA departments. In order to initiate the Council’s work in this new format, a time slot for committee meetings has been incorporated into the agenda for this meeting on Wednesday afternoon.

E. Metropolitan’s Report (attached)

Metropolitan Tikhon delivered his attached report regarding all aspects of his ministry since his election at the 17th All-American Council in November 2012. He also provided an update on ongoing discussions with Metropolitan Jonah towards a final resolution of his status and future ministry within the OCA. Specifics of the financial settlement package for Metropolitan Jonah will be presented to the Council for approval later during this meeting. Extensive discussion concerning Metropolitan Jonah’s situation and other matters took place. The hierarchs stressed the Holy Synod’s pastoral concern for Metropolitan Jonah. In response to questions, the chancellor and hierarchs provided explanation on the development of policies on the transfer of unordained monastics as well as the vetting, nomination and election of episcopal candidates. It was announced that Hieromonk David (Mahaffey) would begin serving as administrator of the Diocese of Alaska on March 1 for at least a year before his possible election by the Holy Synod as diocesan hierarch.

Following a short recess at 10:50 AM, the session resumed at 11:07 AM.

F. Chancellor’s Report (attached)

Archpriest John Jillions, Chancellor, highlighted his attached written report. He stressed the positive atmosphere at the chancery with the presence of Metropolitan Tikhon since his election. He introduced Cindy Davis, newly hired Coordinator for the Office of Review of Sexual Misconduct Allegations (ORSMA). He noted that, in addition to coordinating the handling of ongoing cases, a major part of her work would be prevention of sexual misconduct. He additionally summarized other areas of his work as presented in his report. In discussion of the report, it was noted that confusion still exists concerning the roles of ORSMA, SMPAC, Legal Committee, General Counsel and Crisis Management Team in matters of sexual misconduct and hope was expressed that the new ORSMA coordinator would try to clarify this. In discussion of financial development, it was suggested that the acronym FOS no longer be used as an acronym if the Fellowship of Orthodox Stewards is revived.

O. Other Business

O.1. External Affairs Report

Fr. Leonid Kishkovsky, Director of External Affairs and Interchurch Relations, delivered an oral report. He noted that the Church’s external relations are within the purview of the Metropolitan and are conducted with no paid staff and Bishop Alexander serves as Episcopal moderator. He particularly highlighted the enthronement of Metropolitan Tikhon, which he characterized as a quietly joyful and dignified event. He also reported on OCA participation in the events of the annual March for Life and the enthronement of Metropolitan Antony of the Ukrainian Orthodox Church of the USA. He additionally noted participation of an OCA delegation in the enthronement of Patriarch John X of Antioch and the precarious situation of the Church in that region. He reported on recent productive meetings with Archbishop Justinian and Metropolitan Hilarion of ROCOR. It was requested that Fr. Leonid present written reports in the future. The need to train people for future work in the Church’s external affairs was suggested in discussion. The hierarchs enthusiastically expressed their profound gratitude to Fr. Leonid for his continuing work.
Following a recess for lunch at 12:15 PM, the afternoon session was called to order at 1:07 PM

G. Secretary’s report (attached)

Archpriest Eric Tosi, OCA Secretary, highlighted his attached written report. He stressed the importance of the Metropolitan Council’s committees and encouraged members to join committees. He reminded the members to sign and submit their Best Practices forms. Among the various issues in his report, he noted the need for a new building for the OCA Archives. Previous studies have researched and discounted the relocation of the OCA Archives to one of the seminaries and other venues. Lisa Mikhalevsky suggested that a committee of experts be appointed to study this including a member of the Metropolitan Council as liaison and Eleana Silk, who has worked on this in the past. Fr. Hatfield suggested that Matthew Garklavs, assistant librarian at St. Vladimir’s Seminary, who is a trained archivist, as a more appropriate member for this committee.

G.1. MOTION MIKHALEVSKY/GALLICK - To establish a committee to study the housing needs of the OCA Archives and develop solutions, and to appoint a liaison from the Metropolitan Council for this committee. CARRIED.

Lisa Mikhalevsky was asked to be the MC liaison for this committee. Fr. Eric then noted work in communications and called attention to the attached written report on website work by Ryan Platte, Technical Manager. Fr. Eric noted that a contract for the erection of a cell phone tower on the chancery property is nearing completion. He responded to several questions from the Council.

He also requested the Metropolitan Council’s guidance regarding the feasibility of extensive youth activities at the 18th All-American Council. The Holy Synod has mandated this but funding will need to be appropriated. He additionally requested feedback on the Peter the Aleut Grant Program, funded by a bequest. He then outlined youth protection initiatives undertaken by the OCA in cooperation with other jurisdictions, through background checks for youth workers and other measures. The Council encouraged the development of camp protection guidelines and thanked Mr. Boyd for his report.

J. Financial Development (attached)

David Yeosock, Chairman of the Financial Development Committee, highlighted its attached report. He noted the committee’s participation in preparing the Evangelization appeal and the solicitation of funds for people from remote dioceses to attend the All-American Council. He stated that the committee strongly suggests the reinvigoration of the Fellowship of Orthodox Stewards. He stressed the need for financial stewardship commitment among Council members. Fr. Lowell noted that fundraising is about relationships and that we need to get our story out in order to raise funds for various needs. In further discussion, the need for financial commitment from Council members was reiterated. Pledge forms were distributed. It was stated that appeals could be created through modern technology, without employing paid personnel as in the past. Archbishop Nathaniel suggested that a new name be given to the stewardship organization and that its fundraising focus on a specific need. Discussion ensued. Bishop Michael said that stewardship requires education and example and that new directions in fundraising are needed. He presented a check to Metropolitan Tikhon as a stewardship contribution. The committee will discuss a new name at its meeting on Wednesday. Metropolitan Tikhon stressed the spiritual dimensions of stewardship.

been published on this issue. This resolution is assigned to the Department of Christian Service and Humanitarian Aid. The resolution on African American outreach has been delegated to the Department of Evangelization. Fr. Jillions suggested that the OCA should commemorate Martin Luther King Jr. Day by closing the chancery for this holiday. The Statute amendment on membership has been incorporated into the published text of the Statute and no further action is required. The Statute change regarding Metropolitan Council membership is being further studied by the Legal Committee as has already been reported. The resolutions concerning monasticism and the sanctity of marriage are within the purview of the Holy Synod. Discussion of the resolution concerning seminary support took place. Representatives of the seminaries spoke concerning implementation, which is taking place and possible further efforts. It was suggested that the three seminaries issue a joint appeal letter. A wide-ranging discussion concerning further implementation of this resolution took place.

L. Metropolitan Council Committees (continued)

L.5. Internal Governance (attached)

Following a recess for lunch at 12:43 PM, the afternoon session was called to order at 1:49 PM

N.1. MOTION HATFIELD/VITKO – To approve the recommendation concerning Preconciliar Committee membership as presented and to submit these names for appointment to the Holy Synod. CARRIED.

The issue of convening the 18th All-American Council in 2014 or postponing it to 2015 was extensively discussed. Fr. Tosi noted that initial planning for a projected Council in 2014 was interrupted by the sudden preparations for the extraordinary 17th All-American Council, which took place in November 2012.

Further discussion took place concerning an appropriate name for the stewardship organization and several were proposed. Following a short recess at 10:20 AM, the session resumed at 10:44 AM.

K. Legal Matters (continued)

P. Adjournment

In concluding remarks, Metropolitan Tikhon expressed his personal thanks to everyone for their prayers and support for his primatial ministry and for their work in church administration. He noted that after years of struggle we are now moving into a period where administration and finances can be put into its true context, which is the Gospel and move forward in a way that is Christ-centered because the world requires this of us. Accountability, trust and best practices are all rooted in the Gospel and we must strive to uphold these principles. He expressed his profound satisfaction with the conduct of this meeting and the reasonable and sober approaches to all issues. He quoted St. Paul: “Let no corrupt communication proceed out of your mouth, but that which is good to the use of edifying, that it may minister grace unto the hearers” (Eph.4:29) and said that all of our work should be used for unity and not division. He expressed hope for greater unity throughout the Church, which we should strive to share with the world, so that we could be an image of Christ, His mercy, His love and His Grace. May He strengthen us.

P.1. MOTION LANIER/GARRETSON – To adjourn the meeting. CARRIED.

The meeting was adjourned with prayer at 11:48 AM.

Respectfully submitted,

Alexis Liberovsky,
Recording Secretary
