Holy Synod of Bishops announces 19th All-American Council theme

SYOSSET, NY – “For the Life of the World” was selected as the theme of the 19th All-American Council by the members of the Holy Synod of Bishops of the Orthodox Church in America at their Spring Session at the Chancery March 28-31, 2017. The theme of the AAC – slated to convene in Saint Louis, MO July 23-27, 2018 – is based on the seminal book of the same name by the late Protopresbyter Alexander Schmemmann, which initially appeared in the 1960s and has established itself as a “classic.”

His Beatitude, Metropolitan Tikhon, presided at the opening prayer service in Saint Sergius of Radonezh Chapel and at the hierarchs' plenary sessions. The agenda included Metropolitan Tikhon's opening address; reports from the OCA's officers; updates by the departments, offices, committees and dioceses; and related matters. Updates on the work of the Departments of Christian Education and Christian Service and Humanitarian Aid and the OCA communications team also were presented.

On Wednesday evening, Metropolitan Tikhon concelebrated the Liturgy of the Presanctified Gifts with His Eminence, Archbishop Alejo of Mexico and His Eminence, Archbishop Irénée of Ottawa. Graduating OCA seniors from Saint Tikhon's and Saint Vladimir's Seminaries sang the responses and, together with their wives, engaged in a question-and-answer dialogue with the Holy Synod after dinner. ■ FULL STORY: <https://oca.org/news/headline-news/holy-synod-announces-19th-aac-theme-during-spring-session>

Metropolitan Tikhon expresses condolences after bombings in Egypt, Russia

SYOSSET, NY – As widely reported, some three dozen faithful died and over 100 were injured in terrorist bombings at two Coptic churches in Egypt on Palm Sunday. In response to these tragedies, His Beatitude, Metropolitan Tikhon sent condolences to His Holiness, Tawadros II, Pope of Alexandria and All Africa of the Coptic Orthodox Church.

“The bishops, monastics and faithful of the Orthodox Church in America mourn with Your Holiness and the clergy and faithful of your land,” Metropolitan Tikhon wrote. “We also offer our most sincere and heartfelt condolences for those who lost their lives, and our prayers for comfort and recovery of those injured. We are at a loss to add anything more than the words of the Apostle Paul read on the Feast: ‘The Lord is at hand. Be anxious for nothing, but in everything by prayer and supplication, with thanksgiving, let your requests be made known to God. And the peace of God, which surpasses all understanding, will guard your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus’” [Philippians 4:5-7].

Letters of condolence

Metropolitan Tikhon sent a similar letter to His Holiness, Patriarch Kirill of Moscow, in response to an April 3 subway bombing in Saint Petersburg, in which at least 10 people perished and over three dozen were injured.

“The experience of senseless violence, carried out without discrimination, has been known by too many across all geographic and cultural borders,” Metropolitan Tikhon wrote. “The suffering, pain, fear and anxiety of these events are only bearable through the love offered within the community of faith as we ‘look for the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come.’” ■ FULL STORIES: <https://oca.org/news/headline-news/metropolitan-tikhon-sends-condolences-to-coptic-pope-tawadros-ii-after-palm> and <https://oca.org/news/headline-news/metropolitan-tikhon-sends-condolences-to-patriarch-kirill-after-st.-petersb>
